

Treatments

1. Cockroaches Control

A onetime service is also provided by the company. Our technicians will execute complete spraying for the entire premises and a natural gel will be applied where spraying is not possible, such as in the kitchen appliances, electrical switchboards, cupboards etc. These natural repellents kill the eggs and the adult cockroaches, not leaving behind any stains. Its non-toxic water-based formula is safe for children, the elderly and domestic pets.

2. Termite Control

We offer exclusive packages for termites, giving your property a three-stage protection with a long-lasting residual effect. A thorough inspection is done by our trained technicians and treatment varies with the nature and the intensity of the infestations. Odourless termite control treatments are offered with a guarantee period of three years, which comprise of a natural spray, highly effective and long-lasting on the termites at the same time it is 100% safe for humans and the environment.

3. Mosquitoes control

Mosquitoes are such a nuisance, are vectors of infectious disease, troubling people around homes and business place or in parks and other recreational areas. The threat of Malaria, Chickungunya, Yellow Fever, Dengue and other mosquito-borne diseases could potentially influence everyone in your family, including your pets. We use natural product which is highly effective on the mosquitoes and above all, it's safe for humans and the environment. Spraying by our technicians in the areas of their existence repel the mosquitoes and their larvae from the treated areas.

4. Rodent Control

Rodents, causing a lot of damage, as their teeth continue to grow throughout their lifetime, chewing lead and plastic pipes, insulation material and electric wiring, leading to risks of short circuits and fires, besides transmitting several dangerous diseases. We use products like water-based products or traps which keep them away for long periods

5. Bed Bug Control

Bed bugs are the most difficult to eradicate. Practising hygiene, deep cleaning and the use of amateur insecticides will help to keep bed bug numbers under control. Certainly, professional treatment will be required to eradicate such infestation.

6. Bird Control

Birds, besides posing a potential danger to people's health, they can also make any premise filthy. The key to getting rid of bird infestation is early detection and effective bird deterrent methods by Integrity Pest Control who are expert in controlling bird infestation

